JENNIE BARANCZYK

FOURTH YEAR AT OKLAHOMA

2022, 2023, 2024 NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR FINALIST

2024 BIG 12 COACH OF THE YEAR • 6 CAREER NCAA TOURNAMENTS

2023, 2024 BIG 12 CHAMPIONS • 5 CAREER CONFERENCE TITLES

Jennie Baranczyk was named the ninth head coach of the Oklahoma women's basketball program on April 10, 2021. She is set to enter her fourth season at the helm in 2024-25 and usher the program into a new chapter in the Southeastern Conference.

Baranczyk (pronounced buh-RON-check), a 12-year head coach, spent nine seasons at Drake before starting her Oklahoma tenure in 2021-22. In each of her first three seasons in Norman, Baranczyk was a National Coach of the Year semifinalist and was named the 2024 Big 12 Coach of the Year. Her 74-26 (.740) record through three seasons is the best three-year start in program history.

Her teams have reached 20 wins in nine of the last 10 seasons, including three consecutive 23-plus wins at Oklahoma. She's led her teams to six NCAA Tournaments and produced 34 all-conference honorees over the previous 12 seasons.

Baranczyk delivered the program's second-straight Big 12 Conference regular season championship during her third campaign as the Sooners' head coach. Her efforts earned her Big 12 Coach of the Year honors, and she was a semifinalist for the Naismith National Coach of the Year award. The conference title was OU's first outright conference title since 2009, as OU compiled a 15-3 league record and a 23-10 overall record. Oklahoma was tabbed as a fifth seed in the program's third consecutive NCAA Tournament, where Baranczyk led OU to the second round.

Baranczyk and her staff saw Skylar Vann claim OU's first Big 12 Player of the Year honor in 15 years, while Payton Verhulst was named the league's Newcomer of the Year. Four Oklahoma players received All-Big 12 honors, with Vann and Verhulst making the first team and Nevaeh Tot and Sahara Williams receiving honorable mentions. Vann and Verhulst both earned All-America honors, pushing Baranczyk's All-America total to five as the Oklahoma head coach.

In her second season, Baranczyk guided the Sooners to their first Big 12 championship since 2009, sharing the regular season title with a 14-4 record in league play and a 26-7 overall record. OU also made its second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance under Baranczyk. The Sooners secured a program-record six sweeps in league play and secured the most conference wins in 13 seasons.

Baranczyk's coaching saw Madi Williams selected unanimously to the All-Big 12 First Team, while Taylor Robertson and Ana Llanusa received second-team honors, and Skylar Vann received an honorable mention. Vann also won the Sixth Player Award for the second year in a row, and freshman Beatrice Culliton was named to the All-Freshman team. Additionally, Williams became OU's first WNBA Draft Pick since 2013 and earned WBCA and AP All-America honors along with Robertson.

In her debut season, Baranczyk orchestrated one of the top turnarounds in the country, guiding the Sooners to a 25-9 record and into the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The 13-win improvement from the season before Baranczyk's arrival was the second-largest turnaround in program history. The Des Moines, Iowa, product was named a WBCA National Coach of the Year finalist for her efforts. In addition, the team reached 20 wins faster than all but two teams in program history, rising to No. 12 in the AP Poll midway through the season. Madi Williams and Taylor Robertson earned unanimous All-Big 12 first-team selections, while Skylar Vann was named the league's Sixth Player of the Year.

She became the only first-year head coach in OU history to sweep Baylor and Oklahoma State in the regular season and added a win over Texas in her first campaign. Her four wins over top-25 teams were the most for a first-year Sooner head coach and were the most for the program since 2009-10, the last time OU posted 25 wins in a season.

She coached two Sooners, Taylor Robertson and Madi Williams, to unanimous first-team All-Big 12 selections, the first Sooner pair to do so since 2012. Under Baranczyk's watch, Skylar Vann was named the 2022 Big 12 Sixth Player of the Year, and Kelbie Washington earned All-Big 12 Freshman Team honors. Robertson became OU's first All-America selection since Aaryn Ellenberg in 2014, earning an honorable mention.

Baranczyk came to OU after amassing a 192-96 (.667) record at Drake and leading the Bulldogs to six consecutive 20-win seasons (2014-15 through 2019-20) and three NCAA tournament berths (2017-19). A two-time Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year, Baranczyk's .667 winning percentage ranks fifth in the league's history.

Baranczyk won back-to-back MVC Coach of the Year awards after her team's historic 2016-17 and 2017-18 campaigns. She led the Bulldogs to an 18-0 regular-season conference record both years and won both MVC Tournaments. After the 2018-19 squad posted a 17-1 league record, the Bulldogs had amassed a near-perfect three-year MVC mark of 53-1 (.981).

Drake's 2016-17 team finished with a 28-5 record, including a school- and MVC-record 22-game winning streak. That season, Baranczyk was named Mid-Major Coach of the Year by ESPNW.

Three of Baranczyk's players at Drake combined to win five Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year awards. During her Drake tenure, she produced 24 all-conference selections, including a league-high 18 first-team honorees and a league-leading 38 MVC Player of the Week winners. In addition, she coached four players to MVC Freshman of the Year honors and the program's first two MVC Defensive Player of the Year recipients in 2018 and 2019.

Baranczyk began her coaching career in the Big 12 Conference, serving first as an assistant coach at Kansas State during the 2005-06 season (the Wildcats won the WNIT) and returning to the league as an assistant coach at Colorado from 2010-12. Between her Big 12 stints, Baranczyk was an assistant coach at Marquette from 2006-10, helping the Golden Eagles to an 81-53 record and four postseason appearances. The 2007-08 squad won the WNIT title.

Formerly Jennie Lillis, Baranczyk spent her collegiate career at the University of Iowa (2000-04) and is regarded as one of the best all-around players in Hawkeye women's basketball history. She was a three-time All-Big Ten Conference selection, earning first-team honors as a junior (2003) and second-team recognition as a sophomore (2002) and senior (2004).

The Des Moines, Iowa, product led the Hawkeyes to four postseason appearances, including three NCAA tournament berths and the 2001 Big Ten Tournament title. Baranczyk graduated as the only player in Iowa history ranked in the top 10 of five major statistical categories: points, rebounds, assists, steals and blocks. Additionally, she was one of only two Hawkeyes to score more than 1,700 points and grab 800 rebounds in their career.

Baranczyk earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from Iowa in 2004. She was the recipient of the 2004 Big Ten Conference's Medal of Honor, the award given annually to a student in each university's graduating class who demonstrated proficiency in scholarship and athletics. She was also a three-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree, a WBCA Scholarship Award recipient, a CoSIDA Academic All-District selection, and a Collegiate Basketball Award for Excellence semifinalist as a senior in 2004.

Baranczyk, who obtained a master's degree in counseling and student development from Kansas State in 2006, is married. She and her husband, Scott, have a son, Eli, and two daughters, Jordi and Hope.

JONAS CHATTERTON

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH | FIRST SEASON

Jonas Chatterton was named Oklahoma's associate head coach on May 3, 2024, and is set to enter his first year on Jennie Baranczyk's staff in 2024-25.

Chatterton, a 20-year Division I coaching veteran, comes to Norman after 10 seasons as the associate head coach at Oregon State, where he helped guide the Beavers to the best decade in program history, including appearances in the 2016 Final Four and 2024 Elite Eight. In his 20 years as a coach, Chatterton's teams have produced a cumulative record of 474-229 (.674 winning percentage).

Baranczyk and Chatterton will share the sideline again after the two helped Colorado to national success from 2010-12 under Linda Lappe. They aided the Buffs to back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in nearly a decade and to a pair of WNIT quarterfinals.

Over his 20-year career, Chatterton's teams have appeared in 12 NCAA Tournaments, including seven in the last decade at Oregon State. While he was in Corvallis, the Beavers won 20 games seven times, winning a trio of Pac-12 regular season titles from 2015-17. With Chatterton on the bench, OSU reached four consecutive Sweet 16s from 2016-19, highlighted by a Final Four berth in 2016. In 2024, Chatterton helped the Beavers to the Elite Eight, where they fell to eventual national champion South Carolina in a tight contest. Over the last decade at Oregon State, the Beavers produced six All-Americans, one Pac-12 Player of the Year, a Pac-12 Freshman of the Year, three Pac-12 Defensive Players of the Year and 27 All-Pac 12 honorees.

Chatterton's coaching achievements have gained him national acclaim. He has twice been selected for Nike's esteemed Villa 7 Consortium, where university athletics directors and top assistant coaches convene to mentor the next generation of college basketball leaders. Only a small fraction, less than 10 percent, of women's basketball assistants nationwide from the nearly 350 Division I programs have been invited to this exclusive event over the last four years.

Before arriving in Corvallis, Chatterton was an assistant coach for three seasons at Colorado before being elevated to associate head coach in 2013. In his first two years in Boulder, he and Baranczyk aided head coach Linda Lappe to back-to-back winning seasons and a pair of WNIT quarterfinals. Over his final two years at Colorado, the Buffs won 44 games, including a 25-7 record in 2012-13 and an NCAA Tournament appearance, the program's first since 2004.

Chatterton started his Division I career as an assistant coach under Jeff Judkins at BYU, where the Utah graduate spent eight seasons. With Chatterton on staff, BYU appeared in four NCAA Tournaments, reaching the Sweet 16 in 2002. The Cougars won the 2002 Mountain West Crown, Chatterton's first of four conference championships in his coaching career.

While a student at Utah, Chatterton helped revive a once-canceled basketball program at Westminster College, serving as a men's basketball assistant coach. Before transferring to Utah, he played basketball at Rocky Mountain College in Montana.

Chatterton has four children: daughters, Josie, Celia and Jada, and a son, Hudson.

SHANNON GAGE

ASSISTANT COACH | FOURTH SEASON

Shannon Gage is set to enter her second year as an assistant coach for the Sooners and fourth season overall with the Sooners in 2024-25.

Gage, a 16-year coaching veteran, served as Oklahoma's director of basketball operations for the first two seasons of the Jennie Baranczyk era before moving into a coaching role ahead of the 2023-24 season.

In her first year on the Oklahoma bench, the Sooners won the program's first outright Big 12 championship since 2009, compiling a 15-3 record in league play and 23-10 record overall. OU earned an at-large berth in the NCAA Tournament, advancing to the second round. Gage aided in the development of Big 12 Co-Player of the Year Skylar Vann and Big 12 Newcomer of the Year Payton Verhulst – both of which earned WBCA All-America honors. In total, four Sooners earned All-Big 12 honors with Gage's assistance.

A Tulsa, Oklahoma, native, Gage returned to coaching in 2023 after a nine-year hiatus, where she served in various behind-the-scenes roles. Before joining the Oklahoma staff on the operations side, she worked as an assistant coach at Oklahoma State (2013-15), Iowa (two stints: 03-05, 07-13) and Michigan (2005-07). In her three seasons in Stillwater, she helped guide the Cowgirls to three consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including a run to the Sweet 16 in 2014. Her three-year tenure at OSU produced the third-most winningest stretch in the program's history, compiling a record of 66-31.

At Iowa, Gage worked with Hawkeye perimeter players, coaching 19 All-Big Ten selections, the 2010 Big Ten Freshman of the Year and the 2003 Big Ten Sixth Player of the Year. With Gage helping lead the charge, the Hawkeyes signed a top-10 recruiting class, bringing some of the nation's top talent to Iowa City. Additionally, she coached a pair of all-district selections and two honorable mention All-Americans. With Gage on the bench, the Hawkeyes appeared in seven NCAA Tournaments, including 2004, when All-Big Ten selection Baranczyk starred on the court for Iowa and won the 2008 Big Ten regular season championship.

A 1999 graduate of Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State), Gage was a standout guard for the Bears for head coach Cheryl Burnett. She appeared in 91 games making 11 starts for the Bears and totaled over 1,200 minutes played. While on the team, Missouri State compiled an 87-33 record and 57-15 mark in the Missouri Valley Conference, appearing three times in the NCAA Tournament.

MICHAEL NEAL

ASSISTANT COACH | FOURTH SEASON

Michael Neal will enter his third season on the Oklahoma bench in 2023-24 after joining Jennie Baranczyk's staff before the 2021-22 season.

In three years as assistant coach under Baranczyk, Neal has helped the Sooners to two conference championships, three NCAA Tournaments and has coached 13 All-Big 12 honorees.

Oklahoma won the outright Big 12 championship during his third year on staff, the program's first since 2009. The Sooners advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and posted a 23-10 record overall. Four Sooners earned All-Big 12 honors, highlighted by Skylar Vann, who was named Big 12 Co-Player of the Year, and Payton Verhulst, who claimed the league's Newcomer of the Year honor.

In his second season with the Sooners, Neal helped guide OU to a share of its first Big 12 championship since 2009 as the Sooners posted a 14-4 record in league play. A conference-high five players earned postseason Big 12 recognitions, highlighted by Madi Williams' unanimous All-Big 12 first-team honor and Skylar Vann's Big 12 Sixth Player of the Year award. Neal and the Sooners advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season in 2023.

In his first year at Oklahoma, the Sooners reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2017. Oklahoma posted the nation's third-highest scoring average (82.6) and scored the second-most points (2,808) in school history while sinking a program-record 316 3-pointers. The Sooners swept Baylor and Oklahoma State in the regular season, winning a first-year staff record four games over ranked opponents.

Neal joined the Sooners after seven transformative seasons as head coach of the Norman High School girls' team. He led the Lady Tigers to a 43-1 overall record in his final two seasons at Norman, winning Class 6A state championships in 2019 and 2021. For his efforts at Norman High, Neal was named The Oklahoman's 2021 Super 5 Coach of the Year and USA Today's Oklahoma Coach of the Year for the same season.

Norman High was the No. 1 seed in the 2020 state tournament before the event was canceled due to the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic. Neal was named the Norman Transcript's 2020 Girls' Basketball Coach of the Year after leading the Lady Tigers to a 24-1 record, the Central Oklahoma Athletic Conference championship and a 22-game winning streak heading into the state tournament.

Neal coached several NHS players to all-district and all-state honors, and the 2021 Norman roster featured four players who either signed with or committed to NCAA Division I schools.

No stranger to Lloyd Noble Center, Neal played for the OU men's basketball team during the 2005-06 and 2006-07 campaigns. He averaged 11.0 points and 2.6 rebounds while shooting 37.5% from 3-point range (136 makes). With Neal on the team, Oklahoma advanced to the 2006 NCAA Tournament with a 20-9 record.

Following his career at Oklahoma, Neal played professionally overseas in France and Germany for Saint-Quentin and the Dusseldorf Magics before returning to the United States.

Neal and his wife, LaToya, live in Norman and have two sons, Nash and Jude, and one daughter, Emry.

MARKISHA KASTANTIN

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT AND ASSISTANT COACH | FOURTH SEASON

Markisha Kastantin, a stalwart of Jennie Baranczyk's staff, enters her second season as an assistant coach in 2024-25 and fourth year overall on OU's staff.

Kastantin (KASS-ten-teen) served as Oklahoma's Director of Player Development in the first two seasons of the Baranczyk era before being elevated to assistant coach, in addition to her player development role, ahead of the 2023-24 season.

In her first season on the Oklahoma bench, the Sooners won the 2024 Big 12 regular season championship, posting a 15-3 league record and a 23-10 mark overall. Kastantin helped guide the Sooners to the NCAA Second Round for the third consecutive season after OU received an at-large bid as a No. 5 seed. She assisted in the development of Big 12 Co-Player of the Year Skylar Vann, as well as Big 12 Newcomer of the Year Payton Verhulst. In total, Kastantin aided in an effort that produced four All-Big 12 honorees and two All-Americans.

In her three seasons at Oklahoma, the Sooners have won 20 games each year, won two Big 12 championships and appeared in the NCAA Tournament every season. Since joining Baranczyk's staff in 2015-16, Kastantin has helped guide teams to eight 20-win seasons, six NCAA Tournaments and five conference championships.

Kastantin (formerly Wright) was a standout at Notre Dame where she helped the Fighting Irish to four straight Final Four appearances (2012-15). After concluding her playing career, she became a graduate assistant at Drake before the start of the 2015-16 season, working alongside Baranczyk, and in 2016 was promoted to assistant coach. Throughout her six-year Drake tenure, the program amassed a 144-50 (.742) record. Notably, during a three-year period from 2017-19, the Bulldogs dominated the Missouri Valley Conference with a record-setting 55-1 league mark and secured three consecutive NCAA Tournament berths.

At Notre Dame, she was a captain for the Fighting Irish and played in 138 games, the 11th most in program history. A two-time ACC Academic Honor Roll selection, Kastantin's 36 games played as a freshman was the sixth most ever for the Irish.

She graduated in May 2015 from Notre Dame's College of Arts and Letters with a bachelor's degree in sociology. She earned a master's degree in leadership development at Drake.

Kastantin and her husband, Tyler, reside in Norman and have a daughter, Alivia.

TYUS HOOKS

PROGRAM COORDINATOR AND ASSISTANT COACH | THIRD SEASON

Tyus Hooks is set to enter his second season as assistant coach and third year overall at Oklahoma in 2024-25.

Hooks spent the 2022-23 campaign as OU's Program Coordinator, aiding in recruiting efforts and off-court strategy, before being elevated to assistant coach ahead of the 2023-24 season.

In Hooks' first year as an assistant coach, Oklahoma compiled a 23-10 record and won the Big 12 championship outright. The Sooners advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and made the semifinal of the Big 12 Championship. Hooks and the staff guided Skylar Vann to Big 12 Co-Player of the Year honors and Payton Verhulst to the league's Newcomer of the Year award. Hooks remained involved in the recruiting process, helping deliver the 2024 signing class that featured a pair of ESPN Hoopgurlz top-70 prospects in Zya Vann and Caya Smith.

In his first season on the Oklahoma staff in 2022-23, the Sooners went 26-7 and won a share of the program's first regular season Big 12 championship since 2009. The Sooners advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, powered by one of the nation's top offenses that was guided by two All-America honorees in Madi Williams and Taylor Robertson.

Hooks joined the OU basketball staff prior to the 2022-23 season after working as a graduate assistant at Eastern Michigan under former Sooner Fred Castro's leadership for two years.

Prior to his arrival in Ypsilanti, Hooks was an undergraduate manager on the women's basketball staff at Ole Miss.

A standout prep player for Columbia (Miss.) High School, Hooks has been crucial to the Sooners' recruiting success and played a key role in signing top prospects, including five-star and McDonald's All-American Sahara Williams, as well as Landry Allen, a top-10 center in the 2023 class.

JOSEPH HARROZ JR.

PRESIDENT, UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

Serving the University of Oklahoma for over 28 years in various leadership roles, Joseph Harroz Jr. was named the 15th president of OU on May 9, 2020. Harroz's previous service to the university includes a one-year term as interim president, nine years as dean of the College of Law, 12 years as general counsel, and two years as vice president for executive affairs.

Under Harroz's leadership, over the last four years the university has ambitiously pursued the fulfillment of its "Lead On, University" Strategic Plan, sparking a new era of excellence and elevating OU's position as a top-tier public research university with life-changing impact.

The last three years have seen record-breaking freshman classes at OU, with the fall 2024 incoming class on track to become OU's largest yet. Last fall's incoming class of nearly 5,200 students represented an 11% increase over the previous year, and the class broke other university records, with the largest percentage of first-generation students and more underserved students than any other year. OU's research momentum continues to accelerate, reaching a record $386 million in externally funded research awarded across the university. The OU research enterprise has achieved an average 16% annual growth rate over the last four years and ranks among the top 8% of research universities nationally. The historic merger in 2021 to create OU Health has brought immense benefits to the state and its people. As Oklahoma's first comprehensive academic health system, OU Health is delivering world-class health care, training tomorrow's health professionals, and meeting the toughest medical challenges with pioneering research and innovation.

An abundance of other successes have come to life since the Strategic Plan's introduction — the announcement of a historic $2 billion fundraising campaign, a continued focus on balancing excellence with affordability, the addition of premier freshman housing, entering the SEC, and more.

A native Oklahoman, Harroz graduated Phi Beta Kappa from OU in 1989 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics and a minor in zoology. He earned his J.D. in 1992 from Georgetown University Law Center.

JOE CASTIGLIONE

VICE PRESIDENT FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS PROGRAMS AND DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Few collegiate athletics administrators have experienced the long-term success that Joe Castiglione has enjoyed at the University of Oklahoma.

In his 27th year at the helm of the legendary program, he leads an OU Athletics Department that hardly resembles the one that welcomed him in July of 1998. From conference realignment — now in the Southeastern Conference after 28 years in the Big 12 — to fundraising records and significant growth in capital projects, Castiglione has shaped and stewarded the department's widespread and longstanding success. In fact, the Sooners have won 25 of their 44 team national championships since he arrived in Norman. He has celebrated 113 conference titles in that same period.

By creating a positive culture based on core values, a dynamic vision and a collaborative spirit, Castiglione has made OU Athletics a "destination of choice" and a world-class experience for student-athlete development.

Of course, Oklahoma is not immune to any of the challenges intercollegiate athletics has faced in the past quarter century, and through it all, Castiglione has stood unwavering in his commitment to position OU Athletics as one of the nation's premier programs. For many, it was his response to the COVID-19 pandemic that demonstrated the leader he really is.

As the pandemic arrived, then continued to worsen, Castiglione led the department through the sudden ending of the academics and athletics year with a calm and determined approach. His leadership gave OU's student-athletes, coaches and staff ample reasons to be confident the Sooners would get through the challenges that awaited. Their confidence was warranted.

After an incredibly successful 2022-23 athletics campaign, the 2023-24 academic year yielded OU's eighth softball national championship, including an unprecedented fourth straight and sixth in the last eight seasons. Women's gymnastics, which was ranked No. 1 the entire regular season and set the NCAA single-meet scoring record, won its 11th conference title in the last 12 years, while women's basketball secured its eighth regular season league crown (second consecutive) and baseball won its first-ever regular season Big 12 championship.

The Learfield Director's Cup recognizes overall program excellence. The Sooners have ranked among the top 25 in 21 of Castiglione's 26 years and finished 10th in 2021-22, their best showing since 2012-13. (With the interruption of competition schedules, the Learfield Director's Cup was not awarded for 2019-20.)

Individually, OU student-athletes during Castiglione's tenure have flourished, producing countless all-conference, All-America and national-player-of-the-year honors, including Heisman Trophy winners Jason White, Sam Bradford, Baker Mayfield and Kyler Murray, Naismith and Wooden Award winners Blake Griffin and Buddy Hield, and USA Softball Collegiate Players of the Year Keilani Ricketts and Jocelyn Alo (twice each). Alo is the NCAA's all-time record holder in home runs. Sooners were named Big 12 Athlete of the Year 15 times in the 28-year history of the league, including 11 times over the past 12 years.

» The Castiglione Family

GPA numbers and graduation rates continue to set program records under Castiglione's watch. OU's standard-setting 3.27 cumulative 2024 spring semester GPA marked the 25th consecutive term that OU's student-athletes as a group recorded a 3.0 or better figure. And the latest graduation success rate report (2023-24) reflects an OU-record-tying 89% figure.

OU Athletics, one of the few remaining self-sustaining departments nationally, has been a model of fiscal responsibility, closing the books in the black in each of Castiglione's first 22 years, including the pandemic-shortened 2019-20 season, and again in 2021-22, 2022-23 and 2023-24. His responsible approach has benefited the general campus. Through direct and indirect support, the athletics department provides millions of dollars annually to OU's academic budget. It also established an endowment at Bizzell Library and partnered with the president's office to eliminate the admission fee at OU's internationally known Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art.

Athletics facilities improvement and construction have been carried out at a record pace and Castiglione takes pride in the fact that the majority of those improvements have been funded with private donations. He was instrumental in the athletics department's major campaign at the turn of the century, Great Expectations: The Campaign for Sooner Sports, that impacted each of OU's athletics programs and became a national model. During the 2021-22 fiscal year, OU Athletics received a record-breaking $109 million in donations and pledges (the previous single-year record was $58 million), and followed in 2022-23 with its second-highest figure in school history ($79 million). At time of publication, the 2023-24 fiscal year was expected to yield another record-breaking fundraising year.

A $160 million Gaylord Family — Oklahoma Memorial Stadium renovation was completed prior to the 2017 season and included enclosure of the south end zone, new seating options for Sooner fans and new team facilities. The Griffin Family Performance Center for men's and women's basketball at Lloyd Noble Center opened in 2018. Refurbished men's and women's basketball team areas and construction on a new softball stadium — Love's Field — were completed in spring 2024. Other projects underway include new team facilities for golf, gymnastics and tennis, with major renovations planned for baseball. The $75 million Headington Hall provides housing for the general student population as well as student-athletes and is recognized as making OU the leader in providing an engaging community living option for students. The state-of-the-art building opened in August 2013 and has won the President's Trophy as the outstanding housing unit on campus five times.

In 2021, Castiglione recommended to the OU President and Board of Regents that the university seek membership in the Southeastern Conference for an eventual 2025 move. Castiglione, who played a large role in the formation of the Big 12, ensured OU fulfilled its obligations to the league, which the Sooners joined in 1996. After negotiating an agreeable earlier exit from the Big 12, OU entered the SEC officially on July 1, 2024, after 28 years in the Big 12. The decision arguably set in motion a series of conference realignments that followed throughout the then-Power Five conferences. Membership in the SEC for OU, according to Castiglione, was always about seizing future stability for the university at a time of great disruption within intercollegiate athletics.

Castiglione was named Co-National Athletic Director of the Year in May 2018 by Sports Business Journal. He had won the award in 2009 and been a finalist in 2016. A survey conducted by Sports Illustrated in the summer of 2017 named him the best athletics director in the country, and Stadium selected him in 2020 as the nation's top AD. Other awards and honors include the 2023 LEAD1 Association Pearl Award of Excellence, 2018 Katha Quinn Award (U.S. Basketball Writers of America); 2018 induction into the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame; the 2013 John L. Toner Award (National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame); Carl Maddox Sports Management Award (United States Sports Academy); 2000 and 2018 Athletics Director of the Year (NACDA); 2004 Athletics Director of the Year (Bobby Dodd Foundation); 2003 induction into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators Hall of Fame; and the 2001 General Robert R. Neyland Athletic Director Award for lifetime achievement (All-American Football Foundation).

He earned a master's of education degree in May 2007 and became an adjunct professor in OU's Jeannine Rainbolt College of Education, teaching graduate classes in marketing, development and leadership in higher education. He serves on the college's board of advocates and received the "Award of Distinction" given by the college in 2019. He was recognized for his distinguished service by OU's College of Arts and Sciences and was named a Price College Distinguished Partner in 2018.

Hired on April 30, 1998, Castiglione previously served as athletics director at Missouri for five years. His career began as the sports promotions director at Rice. Other stops

OKLAHOMA'S 25 TEAM NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS UNDER CASTIGLIONE

More than half of Oklahoma's team national championships — 25 of 44 — have come since Joe Castiglione was hired as athletics director in 1998. Not including the pandemic-shortened 2019-20 school year, the Sooners have won at least one national title in each of the last 11 years, and have totaled 18 during that period. In spring 2017 alone, OU captured national championships in men's and women's gymnastics, men's golf and softball, all in the span of 52 days.

Men's gymnastics has won nine national championships since Castiglione arrived in Norman while softball has won eight (including each of the last four), women's gymnastics six (all since 2014) and football and men's golf one each.

included director of athletic fundraising at Georgetown, then director of communications and marketing at Missouri. He marks his 32nd year of serving student-athletes as an athletics director with the 2024-25 academic year.

A 1979 Maryland graduate, Castiglione received the university's Distinguished Alumnus Award in April 2007 and was inducted into the State of Missouri's Sports Hall of Fame in November 2015.

He completed a term on the College Football Playoff Committee in January 2021, making him the only person in history to serve on that committee as well as the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball and Baseball committees. He has served on multiple NCAA committees and commissions, including the NCAA's Board of Governor's Commission to Combat Sexual Violence on Campus, NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet, the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Discussion Group and the United States Olympic Committee Athlete Career and Education Strategic Working Group. He formerly served on the Gatorade Collegiate Advisory Board and continues to serve on the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Board of Directors.

Castiglione is a past president of both the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and NACDA. He also served three terms as the chair of the Big 12 Board of Athletics Directors. A former member of the Phi Delta Theta Foundation Board of Trustees, he is a highly requested speaker at annual conventions and continuing education institutes. In November 2011, his hometown recognized him by selecting him for the Broward County (Fla.) Sports Hall of Fame.

Locally, he has served the United Way of Norman, among other organizations. His third term as OU's campus co-chair resulted in the highest recorded contributions ever by faculty, staff and students to the United Way of Norman's annual campaign. He encourages student-athletes and athletics staff to engage in those efforts as well, with OU Athletics representatives having been known to participate in more than 5,000 hours of community service per year.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Castiglione is married to the former Kristen Bartel, a 1990 graduate of the University of Missouri. They are the parents of two sons, Joseph Jr., who earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and a master's degree from Oklahoma in 2019 and 2021, respectively, and Jonathan, who graduated from OU in 2023 with a bachelor's degree in journalism (creative media production).

32-4 Overall Record 5-1 NCAA Tournament Record Coached by Sherri Coale

Oklahoma made history in 2002 with its first trip to the NCAA Final Four. The Sooners dominated NCAA action by winning five of their six games by an average margin of 21 points. After capturing the Big 12 regular season and tournament titles, OU earned a No. 1 seed in the West Region and opened NCAA action inside Lloyd Noble Center. The Sooners advanced to the Sweet 16 with a pair of victories over Hartford (84-52) and Villanova (66-53). However, in order to advance to the Final Four, OU had to eliminate two Big 12 teams. First up was Texas Tech. Oklahoma handed the Lady Raiders a 72-62 loss, before routing Colorado, 94-60, for the right to play in the Final Four in San Antonio. Oklahoma shocked Duke with an 86-71 win in the NCAA semifinals before suffering a disappointing 82-70 loss to national powerhouse Connecticut in the national championship game. OU concluded the season 32-4 as the No. 2 team in the AP and USA Today/Coaches Polls.

» 2009

32-5 Overall Record 4-1 NCAA Tournament Record Coached by Sherri Coale

Oklahoma swept through its home state once again in the 2009 NCAA Championship en route to its second Final Four appearance. Following its sixth Big 12 season championship, OU was rewarded with the No. 1 seed in the Oklahoma City Region, ensuring a path through the Sooner State. Oklahoma dropped Prairie View (76-47) and Georgia Tech (69-50) in Iowa City, Iowa in the first and second rounds. At the Ford Center in Oklahoma City, the Sooner Nation swarmed to the best-attended regional site of the season as OU played in front of crowds of more than 11,000 on its home turf. The Sooners dispatched Pittsburgh (70-59) and Purdue (74-68) to punch a ticket to St. Louis and the Final Four. Oklahoma fell to Louisville at the buzzer, 61-59, ending its remarkable run. The Sooners matched their single-season program record for wins with 32 and finished fourth in the national polls.

27-11 Overall Record 4-1 NCAA Tournament Record Coached by Sherri Coale

The route ran through the Sooner State, ending in familiar territory, as Oklahoma earned a consecutive berth in the NCAA Women's Final Four. Despite the loss of the previous year's star-studded senior class and a season-ending injury to All-America candidate Whitney Hand, the Sooners never wavered from their identity of resilience. OU fought through the nation's toughest schedule and was rewarded with a road to the Final Four that started at home. The Sooners handled South Dakota State and Little Rock at Lloyd Noble Center in the first and second rounds before winning dramatically at the Kansas City Regional. Oklahoma needed last-minute heroics to take down Notre Dame 77-72 in OT and rallied to defeat a pesky Kentucky squad 88-68. No. 2 Stanford loomed in San Antonio, site of the OU's first Final Four and national runner-up finish in 2002, and despite a valiant second-half effort to take an 18-point deficit to one possession, the Sooners fell 73-66.

» Stacey Dales was drafted third overall in the 2002 WNBA Draft and is OU's highest draft pick in program history.

Here's your shot. If you want to make a name for yourself as an elite player, you come to the University of Oklahoma. The Sooners have littered the draft board in recent seasons, no more evident than in 2010 when the entire senior class was selected by teams.

First-Round Draft Picks

Oklahoma is fourth among SEC teams with six first-round WNBA picks. The latest of those was Danielle Robinson, who was selected sixth overall in 2011 by the San Antonio Stars. OU has had six players — Stacey Dales, Rosalind Ross, LaNeisha Caufield, Dionnah Jackson, Courtney Paris and Robinson — taken in the first round of the draft since the league's inception.

15 WNBA Draft Picks

A total of 15 Sooners — Caufield, Dales, Whitney Hand, Jackson, Abi Olajuwon, Ashley Paris, Courtney Paris, Robinson, Ross, Leah Rush, Nyeshia Stevenson, Amanda

Thompson, Maria Villarroel, Phylesha Whaley and Madi Williams — have been drafted into the league.

Coaching At The Next Level

Former Sooner greats have made their presence known on the court, but now are impacting the game in another way - coaching. Courtney Paris (Dallas) and Abi Olajuwon (Connecticut) are both assistants in the W. Olajuwon coached for Team Nigeria at the 2024 Olympics.

OKLAHOMA BASKETBALL

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

It's recognized as one of the toughest gyms in college basketball and since Oklahoma women's basketball began playing in the Lloyd Noble Center (LNC) in 1976, the Sooners have made plenty of memories there. Stacey Dales, Aaryn Ellenberg, Courtney Paris, Danielle Robinson and Phylesha Whaley are just a few that have graced the court and started for the Sooners.

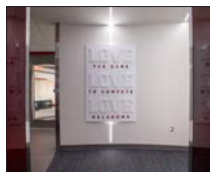

It's where OU set a school record with 26 consecutive home wins during a three-year stretch from 1984-86. The Lloyd Noble Center has been the foundation of the program's significant growth over the last 25 years.

The Sooners are 450-162 (.735) all-time at the Lloyd Noble Center with over 1.9 million fans walking through the facility's doors since 1997.

In 2024, the team's facility went under a renovation that provided the program with a world-class locker room, recovery areas and team rooms.

» GRIFFIN FAMILY PERFORMANCE CENTER

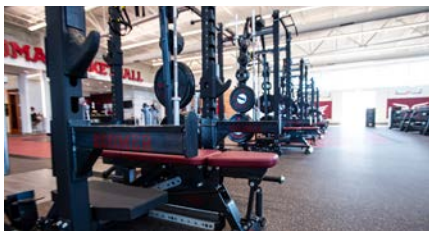

Want to train at the nation's premier basketball facility for strength and performance? Oklahoma is the place for you.

NBA star Blake Griffin committed in August 2016 to help financially support the construction of the approximately 18,400-gross-square foot training center. The addition, which was built south of the men's and women's basketball's two existing practice gyms and helps enhance strength training facilities for both men's and women's programs, as well other Sooner student-athletes, is called the Griffin Family Performance Center. The approximate total cost of the project was $7 million.

"We are grateful for Blake Griffin and his family for the mark they are leaving on the University of Oklahoma and our basketball programs," former OU women's basketball head coach Sherri Coale. "Their generosity will impact OU student-athletes for years to come and give many unparalleled opportunities for success. This training facility will be help our student-athletes reach their full potential and allow our teams to continue to compete at a championship level."

"Being a Sooner is more than just what you do in competition," said Griffin, who was the 2009 consensus national player of the year and the No. 1 overall pick in that year's NBA Draft. "I am thankful to have had the opportunity to play OU basketball, which has a legacy of people that have made it great. College is such a critical time in an athlete's playing career and it's my honor to help give the men's and women's teams the resources and technology that will give them the best opportunity to succeed. I am humbled that OU has chosen to name this facility after me, and I am really excited to see this high-performance training center come to life."

The Griffin Family Performance Center is the first of its kind among the nation's collegiate basketball programs. Some of the many features include basketball training courts, free weights, indoor turf, outdoor turf with sand pit, spaces for plyometric and cardiovascular training, cardio and strength testing, locker rooms, an exam and recovery area, a fueling station, a multi-purpose room and overhead fresh-air doors.

» 2024-25 MEDIA POLICIES

Priority for press credentials will be given to media outlets who regularly cover OU basketball. National media outlets will also receive consideration. Media with a scannable credential from OU football games should use the same credential for basketball access.

Courtside media access will be granted on a game-by-game basis to photographers and videographers that regularly cover OU women's basketball. Photographers and videographers not associated with OU Athletics will not be granted seating on the risers south of the court and must use the photo/video work room in located in the tunnel as a work station.

» MEDIA SEATING

Media seating for the 2024-25 seasons will be in the upper west media section 207. The media area features three rows of tables and work areas. Game notes and other printed materials will be available in the media work room located in the tunnel in the south side of the arena.

» PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers and videographers must shoot from the Lloyd Noble Center baselines. No photo spots will be assigned for regular season games. Because of space limitations, photographers are encouraged to arrive early to secure a position.

Two media seats will be designated for visiting team media in 2024-25, if requested. Should the visiting team's press corps choose to not attend the game, the seats will be reallocated to home media members.

» CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Credential requests should be made to Josh Poteet via email (jpoteet@ou.edu) no later than 48 hours before each game. Organizations may request single-game credentials for the entire season, but requests will be evaluated on a game-by-game basis. The home SID will distribute an email at least 24 hours before each game to notify your organization which media members will be permitted a credential.

» PARKING

Media members should park on the southeast side of the arena. No pass or payment is required.

» CREDENTIAL PICKUP

Credentials for OU home games may be picked up in the tunnel entrance beginning 90 minutes prior to tipoff.

Photo identification is required for pickup. Each media representative must claim his or her pass.

» WNBA SCOUTS

Press credentials will issued on a limited basis to WNBA scouts for the 2024-25 season. If credential allotment is filled, tickets may be requested based upon availability.

» INTERVIEW POLICY

Postgame interviews will be conducted in-person in the press conference room located in the tunnel. Midweek availabilities will be held on Zoom.

Non-postgame interviews with players or coaches must be arranged through Josh Poteet (jpoteet@ou.edu) and requested at least 24 hours in advance of the desired interview time.

Only postgame interviews are allowed on game days.

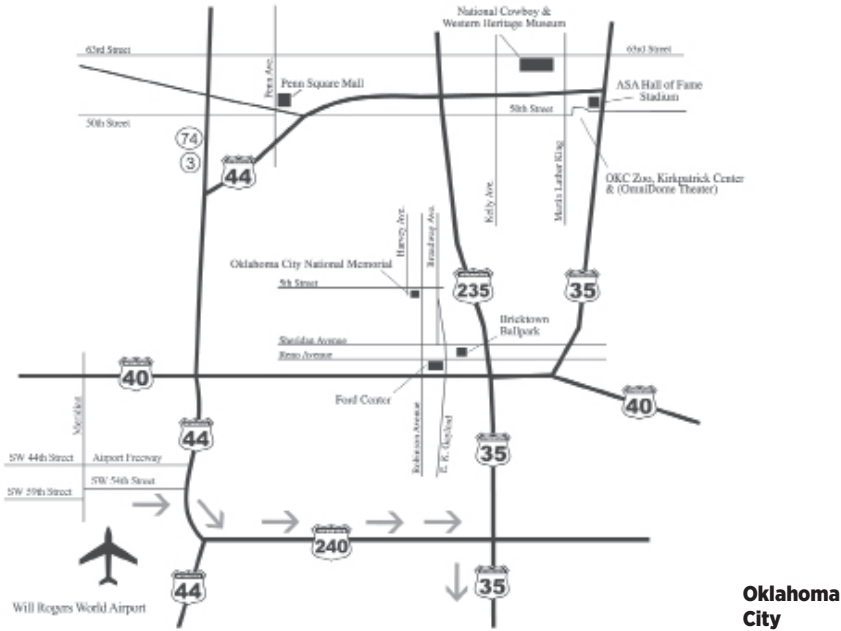

» VISITING RADIO

Visiting radio crews are positioned next to their team's bench, on the north end of the east sidelines and receive four seats.

» POOL REPORTER POLICY

Any questions from the media directed to officials, Coordinators of Officials or Conference Sport Administrators should be referred promptly to the respective Conference sport communications contact to assess and develop any necessary response.

» THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

GREG SANKEY

Commissioner

A pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition, the Southeastern Conference is a leader on the national landscape for intercollegiate athletics in the 21st century.

Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has achieved stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. These university leaders determine the policies of the conference and through the years this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC. Throughout its 82-year history, the SEC has provided leadership on the vital issues facing intercollegiate competition.

Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt have been in the SEC since its formation in 1933. The league has expanded three times, adding Arkansas and South Carolina in 1991, then Missouri and Texas A&M in 2012, then Oklahoma and Texas on July 1, 2024.

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another more than 120 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives, called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt, in Atlanta Dec. 22, 1894.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track. The league's inaugural championship event was a basketball tournament in Atlanta, Feb. 24-28, 1933. Records show the first men's team title for cross country was awarded in 1935, while golf and swimming were added in 1937. The league later began hosting championships in tennis (1938) and indoor track (1957).

In the 1979-80 academic year SEC championships for women were recognized in basketball, tennis and volleyball. The following year golf, gymnastics, swimming and track & field were added. Soccer was added in 1993 and softball began SEC play in 1997. The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984.

In 1993, the member institutions adopted The Principles of Gender Equity. Committed to increasing the quantity and quality of women's athletics opportunities, each school provides at least two more women's intercollegiate programs than the number of men's teams on each campus.

The conference approved equestrian as its 21st sponsored sport for the 2012-13 academic year. The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 12 women's sports.

Men's sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, swimming, tennis, and indoor and outdoor track and field; Women's sports: basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and volleyball.
